REV. SLAUGHTER IS CONVICTED

Oroville, Cal., May 13.—Rev. Madison Slaughter, Baptist pastor, was found guilty today of having attacked Gertrude Lamson, 15 year old girl. This was his second trial. In the first the jury disagreed.

The jury came in with the verdict at 9:24 a. m. There was a tense silence as the foreman handed the paper to the clerk, who read it. Slaughter manifested no emotion. Mrs. Slaughter, who was by his side, did not show any excitement, but Mrs. Ivy Camper, one of the witnesses for the defense and a close personal friend of the minister, went into hysterics.

Attorney Schooner, for the defense, immediately asked that new bonds be fixed, but Judge Gregory refused and turned Slaughter over to the custody of the sheriff.

The crowd in the court room was quiet when the verdict was read, but those in the corridors and clustered outside the court house cheered lustily. Their applause could be heard in court.

The jury was out 21 hours. In the first trial a much longer deliberation preceded a disagreement.

Slaughter's first trial commenced March 7 and ended April 3. From the time the charges were made Slaughter has been the center of considerable agitation in his church, frequently in his sermons denouncing the accusations against him as a "frame-up" on the part of the liquor interests and other enemies.

"What else could they expect," said Gertrude Lamson, when she heard of the verdict. "I knew it all the time. I am glad it is over. I am glad that I have been vindicated, and I am very glad to have the people know that I told the truth. I am sorry for Rev. Mr. Slaughter, but he is getting what he deserves."

TO SUBMIT ARMY BILL TO BOTH HOUSES

Washington, May 13.—Agreed on its major details, the house and senate conferees today prepared to submit a final draft of the army bill—first of the great preparedness measures—to both houses. There were prospects of a speedy acceptance.

The principal features of the bill as it now stands calls for a regular army of 175,000 to 180,000 which may be expanded to 220,000, with the militia as a reserve line, its present powers and duties changed, a government nitrate plant, enlarged air and field artillery branches, a larger general staff, 75 hours monthly training in trades for privates and a shorter active service period.

NOT MUCH DAMAGE AT BOISE BY QUAKE

Boise, Idaho, May 13.—Several crumbled chimneys, broken plaster and windows and cracked chinaware was found today to be the extent of the damage resulting from a severe earth tremor which shook Boise and cities for fifty miles around at 7:26 p. m. yesterday. The quake lasted four seconds. Weather bureau officials said it was more of an upheaval than a wave, or swaying motion.

Frightened crowds rushed from theaters and buildings in the business sections of the city, but ere they reached the streets the shock was over. A huge chimney on an office building crumbled, and bricks were hurled into the street. Two chimneys on residences also fell and many were cracked by the earthquake.

Nobody was reported injured at an early hour today. Fears were felt that the huge Arrowrock dam, 20 miles from Boise, might have been cracked, but caretakers telephoned that the dam was intact.

Plate glass windows of two stores in Boise were shaken loose and broken.

Weiser, Idaho, 75 miles west of Boise, was severely shaken. A well of natural gas showed a tremendous increase in pressure immediately after the shock. The gas caught fire in several places and was extinguished with difficulty.

Ontario and Baker, Oregon, Payette, Emmett and Idaho City, Idaho, felt the shock, but there was only slight damage.

Last night's earthquake was by far the most severe ever experienced in Boise. On April 30 a slight tremor shook the city.

Those Proofreaders!

"The toastmaster called my speech a trophy of good sense."
"Odd expression—rather neat, though."
"Yes, but the types made it atrocious!"

SAYS THE ROANOKE WAS OVERLOADED

San Francisco, May 13.—Flat charges that the North Pacific liner Roanoke was overloaded when it left on its fatal voyage last Monday were made today by Mrs. John G. Dennis, widow of the steamer's second officer, whose corpse was found in a drifting life boat southward of Port San Luis by the Pacific Mailer City of Para yesterday evening.

"I have been robbed of my husband," said the grief-stricken Mrs. Dennis. "The Roanoke's interior was sawed away to make room for an unprecedented cargo. All day Monday a gang of carpenters was busy aboard and my husband told me they were removing beams, braces and everything to make more room. He said he did not believe the Roanoke would get farther than San Pedro and he promised to quit her there."

It has been admitted that, while in the passenger service the old steamer drew about 19 feet of water and when she left San Francisco last Monday she drew 23 feet. Stevedores have declared that the Roanoke was loaded with great speed and carelessly.

Reports from San Luis said that another life boat was seen drifting off that point, but efforts to find it and tow it in were unsuccessful.

Federal investigation of the Roanoke disaster begins in San Francisco today. The coroner's inquest over the five bodies which came ashore in the life boat with the three survivors is scheduled to commence today in San Luis Obispo. A beach patrol is still being maintained for the bodies of the other 45 of 50 victims.
